

YOUTH IS RESCUED BY DOCK LABORERS AT PERIL OF LIVES

Three Men Brave Death in East River to Bring Boy Ashore.

Three employees of the Dock Department saved the life of a small boy in the East River off Sixty-eighth street this morning, though they nearly lost their own lives. The boy, Charles Charles of No. 1138 First avenue, was unconscious when taken out and was revived after difficulty. The men who saved him worked over him until they found that he was all right, then took him to a hospital and after resting a while went back to work.

The foot of East Sixty-eighth street is a favorite swimming place for boys. The Dock Department is building a sea wall at the place and a big lighter and derrick was moored well up while the men on it were clearing away the earth for the foundations.

The yells of the boys attracted the attention of the men at work about 10 o'clock. The lads on shore pointed to a boy who was being carried out with the strong tide and in danger of being carried under the big lighter. George Foster of No. 55 South First street, South Brooklyn, who first saw the boy from the derrick, realized his danger and jumped in. Foster was followed by another man, William A. Law, of No. 1228 Second avenue.

The two grabbed the boy and tried to swim to the shore. The tide was too strong and they were being swept towards the dangerous eddy when Richard Connors of No. 12 East One Hundred and Twelfth street, another Dock Department employee, went to their aid. The three managed to work their way to the shore.

LONG VIGIL TRAPS A THIEF.

Detective Hides Two Nights in a Small Closet.

YONKERS, June 9.—After remaining all night two nights in succession in a clothes closet so small that there was just room for him to stand upright, Police Lieutenant Henry Blatheim today caught Joseph Bartoni of No. 106 School street, Yonkers, who later confessed it was he who had repeatedly rifled a safe in the store of Louis Schmidt, No. 3 North Broadway, Yonkers.

For some weeks Schmidt and the police have been mystified by the mysterious manner in which the safe has been opened and its contents stolen. No one but Schmidt knew the combination to the outer door of the safe and no one but Schmidt had a key to the inner door. After the other Yonkers sleuths had been baffled Blatheim took up the case. The first night he watched in the small closet in the store, the door being ajar enough for him to see, nothing happened. Last night he again watched all night. Anthony Bartoni, aged fourteen, entered the store at 7 o'clock to clean up. He immediately admitted his elder brother Joseph through an unused door. Joseph had formerly worked for Schmidt. One day he found on a desk a slip of paper containing the safe combination. Another day he managed to get the key of the inner door and had an impression made. He was held for the Grand Jury by Judge Beall.

BLOW MEN TO PIECES WITH ARMY RIFLES IN CHINESE RIOTS

Chinese Assembly Denounces Governor of Canton for Horror Acts of His Troops.

HONGKONG, June 10.—The Chinese Assembly at Canton has denounced the action of the Governor of Canton in putting martial law into effect. According to despatches received here, the brutality that has occurred in the various cities is of a revolting nature. Executions are taking place daily at Wuchow, where men are being shot on the slightest pretext, the Government troops firing volleys at them from a distance of only five yards and virtually blowing them to pieces. The fragments of their bodies are then scattered over the streets. The horrors are so appalling that the details are indescribable.

Secret meetings have been held by the citizens of Wuchow to plan vengeance on the officials engaged in carrying out the executions. A force of 1,000 soldiers is stationed in the city, but piracy is an everyday occurrence. The Chinese merchants are strongly advocating the raising of a patriotic subscription instead of a foreign loan. Ex-President Dr. Sun Yat Sen has had several conferences with them on the subject.

The John Wanamaker Store

To Celebrate the New Silk Store's First Birthday in Its Old Quarters of A. T. Stewart's Time, We Announce, Commencing Tomorrow, Tuesday,

30,000 Yards Silk Foulards

Just Two Prices

Imported, 78c yard, regularly $2 and $2.50
American, 68c yard, regularly $1.50 and $2

More Silks! Yes, We Have Only Begun Selling Them in the NEW WAY.

When the Silk Store moved from the First floor into the Rotunda, famous since A. T. Stewart's day for fine silks, people set to marveling at the inaugural display and attendant low prices. Succeding exhibitions and sales throughout the twelve-month have caused nothing less than a sensation both in retail and wholesale markets.

With our unlimited outlet we have become the distributing agent for importers and manufacturers of Wanamaker Standard, taking over from time to time their excess stocks and presenting to the New York public good silks at prices hardly equalled within ten years.

Now, this new purchase of 30,000 yards caps the year! They are not just miscellaneous silks, but only one kind of silk—FOULARDS, the Summer silk par excellence.

BORDERED FOULARDS, woven by American manufacturers and earlier sold by ourselves (including oddments of our own stocks of same general sort) at $1.50 and $2 yard, now 68c.

BROCADED PRINTED SATINS, or satin foulards, woven by the French and unusually beautiful, even at earlier prices at $2 and $2.50 yard, now 78c.

Lyons never sent lovelier foulards to America than these we shall sell at 78c.

Wonderful French Shades

Greatest variety in the fashionable effects of black-and-white, all shades of blue-and-white, all kinds of white-and-black, besides pink, amethyst, grape, cardinal and soft, old-fashioned colorings for panner gowns.

Foulards for morning, seashore, country, travel, motor, evening.

The finest qualities at 68c and 78c yard.

The 30,000 yards will be displayed in the Silk Rotunda and on the Main Aisle to the very entrance of the store at Broadway.

Selling commences 8.30 o'clock. Plenty of skilled attendants in readiness.

Tuesday, Main floor, Old Building.
